

Bridging the new and old.

QUINCY - JUNE 18TH & 19TH

Join in on the fun June 18th & 19th in bustling downtown Quincy! With the introduction of new real estate development in the area, there is a whole new energy along Hancock Street. The Quincy Chamber of Commerce and City of Quincy will host the grand opening of the brand-new public meeting place, Kilroy Square. Check out the 30 ft. x 30 ft. interactive multimedia wall to learn more about Quincy's shipyard history.

While you're there, make sure to take a leisurely stroll around Quincy Center to check out the We are More poster campaign - a public art campaign celebrating the resilience and diversity of the Asian American and Pacific Islander (AAPI) community - by acclaimed artist Amanda Phingbodhipakkiya's along with art installations by local Quincy artist, Helen Yung. While you're there, stop by the Quincy Farmer's Market (Friday). Farmer's market (Fridays) and Quincy Square Market (Saturdays) run each weekend from June - October.

Stop into Idle Hour on Saturday, June 19th for a complimentary appetizer on us (with purchase of equal or greater value, limited quantities available). Must mention Hello! South Shore.
